Guide of Yasukuni Jinja
(Shinto Shrine)

Yasukuni Jinja was founded in 1922 with the aim of housing the spirits of all the Japanese soldiers who died during the Sino-Japanese War.

History

The site of Yasukuni Jinja in Shinjuku which was established in 1922 was the former site of the Sama Shrine, founded in 1566. After the Sama Shrine was damaged in the Great Kanto Earthquake in 1923, its former site was used to establish the Yasukuni Jinja.

Foundation

Yasukuni Jinja has deep roots in the history of Japan and is a testament to the country's past. The shrine is dedicated to all Japanese soldiers who died during the Sino-Japanese War, and is a place of pilgrimage for many日本人.

Deities

The Yasukuni Jinja is dedicated to serving the spirits of all Japanese soldiers who have fallen in battle since the beginning of the country's history.

Weizugun

The Yasukuni Jinja is one of the most important shrines in Japan and is a place of pilgrimage for many people. The shrine is dedicated to serving the spirits of all Japanese soldiers who have fallen in battle since the beginning of the country's history.

Yasukuni Jinja

Yasukuni Jinja was founded in 1922 with the aim of housing the spirits of all the Japanese soldiers who died during the Sino-Japanese War.